

Person Centered Planning and Services: A Workshop for Support Planners

Wednesday,
September 23, 2009
10 am - 4 pm (lunch included)
Cost: $79

Support Planners have a unique role in the human services and in the lives of the people and families they support. This interactive workshop will provide Support Planners with knowledge and understanding of person centered philosophies, as well as ideas and approaches for implementing person centered practices into services provided.

Person centered planning is an approach to determining, planning for and working toward the preferred future of a person with disabilities. It allows the individual served to take a lead role in determining the services they will receive.

Training Topics will include:

- Overview of "Person Centeredness"
- Understanding the planning process
- Creative use of person centered tools
- Practical applications for designing service plans
- Learning to work with families during the planning process

Who Should Attend:

This class is designed for Support Planners (formerly Flexible Case Managers) to meet the DHS training requirements of Person Centered Planning.
